Opening Worship: Friends were called to gather by Liz Jenkins, Meeting Clerk, at 11:49 AM. The Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business settled with a brief period of silent worship.

Reading: "Faithfulness in Friends' experience is rooted in continuing revelation, in being broken open by the power of the Spirit calling us into new ways of living. We believe this is a time of such in breaking and recognition, a time of turning for this country and for our Religious Society. We believe God is calling us to a profound kind of change, to move from awareness to transformative action." - A Time for Repentance and Transformation. June 5, 2020 (Excerpt) In the Love that Brings a New Creation, New England Yearly Meeting of Friends (Quakers)

Treasurer's Annual Report (See PDF) The Treasurer Greg Allen-Anderson, explained the annual Report, commented on special occurrences and offered to respond to questions. The Clerk added additional information.

Committee Reports

Peace and Social Concerns: A concern was presented in a "Letter to Leaders of Faith and Goodwill" opposing the proposed Florida "Combating Violence, Disorder and Looting and Law Enforcement Protection Act." The call for support originates with the Florida Poor Peoples Campaign.

Attachments: Letter to "Combating Violence, Disorder and Looting and Law Enforcement Protection Act."

Due to time constraints, an immediate response is requested if OMM is included as a signee. The bill is on the Florida legislative calendar for March 2021.

Friends joined in in-depth discernment. Stephanie Preston-Hughes and Richelle Odell spoke enthusiastically about the letter and its objective. Members and attenders gave the adverse nature and the many detrimental aspects of the proposed legislation. We concur the proposed bill is in opposition to our Quaker values. Friends were in unity to include Orlando Monthly as a signee.

2021.01-03 In the Spirit of our testimonies of peace, integrity, community, and equality, Quakers of Orlando stands with the Florida Poor People's campaign in signing the declaration to seek to ensure that our civil liberties, given under the Constitution of the United States of America, will remain inviolate so we the people will continue to have a voice. Quakers of Orlando directs the Meeting clerk to communicate this minute to Fr Charles T Myers: Faith Chair, Florida Poor People's Campaign, so that Quakers of Orlando (Orlando Monthly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends) can be added as a signatory to the declaration in opposition to the proposed legislation titled, "Combating Violence, Disorder and Looting and Law Enforcement Protection Act."

2021.01-04 Quakers of Orlando encourages members to take action in support of our signature to the letter framed by the Florida Poor People's Campaign and endorsed by Minute 2021 - 01 03 by calling their legislators and writing to them in opposition to the proposed legislation titled, "Combating Violence, Disorder and Looting, and Law Enforcement Protection Act."

Worship and Ministry Committee: Worship and Ministry Committee Meeting met on 1/7/2021. Present online were Minerva Glidden, Kody Hersh, Jerry Knutson, Stephanie Preston-Hughes, Liz Jenkins.

The committee shared the following minute: "Due to the events on January 6, 2021, combined with many earlier events and a formal request from the SEYM Committee on Ministry on Racism, Orlando Monthly Meeting Worship and Ministry Committee recommends that our Meeting begins to address our systemic racism.

Worship and Ministry clerk, Minerva Glidden, introduced the minute from the 1/7/21 Committee Meeting and added context. Friends engaged in thoughtful reflection on the Worship and Ministry minute and the Meeting's response as a whole.

2021.01-05 In recognition of our Quaker testimony of Equality and a formal request from the SEYM Committee on Ministry on Racism, Orlando Friends are ready to examine and to begin to address systemic racism and internalized white supremacy in our Meeting.

2021.01-06 Orlando Friends agree to implement the process of self-examination in part through the threshing session to be facilitated by Kody Hersh on Thursday, March 25, 2021, from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on “Queries for a Quaker Call to Action on Racism in our Meeting.”

Southeastern Yearly Meeting Sessions

Friends were reminded of the dates and times of Winter Interim Business Meeting (WIBM) sessions and the Michener Lecture. January 15, 2021.

The date for Next Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business: 2/14/2021

Annual Meeting of the Quakers of Orlando will be 2/14/2021

Treasurer's Monthly Report

Budget- Budget was approved and input into Quickbooks for 2021

Meeting House Utilities – I put the remainder of the credit balance into Pre-Paid expenses for meeting house utilities. This means that the credit is shown on the balance sheet so our income statement for the year shows the proper amount. The transaction will be reversed in January.

Phone/Internet - This is over budget due purchasing increase capacity and adding service to Webster Cottage.

Insurance- The new insurance policy has been received.

Donations - This was a donation to the church that hosts the St. Augustine Worship Group. The worship group had more than enough funds to cover it.

Earth Care Secretary - This isn't actually over budget. The check for last year wasn't issued until January 2, 2020 so it shows in this year's report.

Social and Community Giving - This is partly a timing issue, but will be over $10,000 for the year due to the additional funds authorized mid-year.

Overall results - We did better this year than budgeted on donations, largely due to the donations received by the St. Augustine Worship Group. Other than those outlined above we are on budget or under budget for our expenses. We have a bit more cash on hand at year end than forecast.

Roof - The roof replacement now shows on the balance sheet as a depreciable asset.

Letters of Transfer of Membership for Pierre Ivory

To: Haddonfield MM from Pierre Ivory

Inspira Williams, Clerk
Haddonfield Monthly Meeting,
47 Friends Ave.,
Haddonfield, N.J. 08033

Dear Friend Inspira,

Last year, my husband, Guillaume Ivory, & I moved to St Augustine, Fla., both finally being retired-liberated from employment.

We have been attending the St. Augustine Quaker Worship Group (Society of Friends), which is under the care of Orlando Monthly Meeting, nearby.

We find ourselves at home in the worship group, & have decided it is time to formally join.

This means we would, in my case, request transfer of my membership from Haddonfield MM to Orlando MM, and in his case, applying for membership directly to Orlando MM; he has started that process.

We have fond memories of the Haddonfield Meeting, the meetinghouse, the gardens, but especially of Friends there. I remember, when I would bump into a Friend from the Meeting on the train into Philadelphia, or on the street in Philadelphia, while rushing downtown in my lunchtime, it made my day.

I request that Haddonfield Monthly Meeting transfer my membership to Orlando Friends Meeting.

The clerk there is:
Elizabeth A. Jenkins,
Orlando Friends Meeting,

From Inspira Williams, Clerk, Haddonfield (N.J.) Monthly Meeting

Dear Elizabeth Jenkins:

At a regular Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business on 12th month, 13th day, 2020, the Haddonfield Monthly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends approved the transfer of membership of Peter Ivory to Orlando Monthly Meeting. He was remembered with fondness by those who knew him. We request that Orlando Monthly Meeting accept him with warmth and affection.

Faithfully yours,
Inspira Joyce Williams
Clerk

To All Leaders of Faith and Goodwill:

The Sacred Texts of the World's great religions as well as an array of humanistic philosophies, all emphasize humanity's obligation to respect one another. These venerated texts teach us to stand up for the oppressed, the disenfranchised, and the marginalized. Such writings highlight our collective responsibility to ensure justice and equity for all.

When society in general has refused to stand up for "the least of these" - to borrow a description used by Jesus - and when local, state and federal governments have persistently failed to establish and safeguard equality and fairness, it becomes incumbent on individuals and organizations of faith and goodwill to employ the grassroots power of the people to protest against such actions and inactions.

Throughout history, prophets, sages, philosophers, and poets have unflinchingly decried injustice and called for a truly moral order. "Do not pervert justice," states Moses in the Torah. "Let justice roll down like a river," writes the Hebrew prophet Amos. And his prophetic successor Micah calls for us to "act justly and to love mercy."

Muslims are admonished to "stand firm for justice even against your own selves." In Hindu commentaries, justice is described as "a means of protecting the weak from the strong." The Baha'i faith places such a premium on justice that their international governing council is called The Universal House of Justice. Jesus taught that we should treat others as we would want to be treated. And we could cite numerous other faith and non-faith declarations.

Throughout America's history, activists - faith leaders, community leaders, union organizers and innumerable ordinary citizens without title or rank - have used voice, pen and amassed presence (i.e. protest) to remind those in power of our nation's promise to provide "liberty and justice for all."

When in the name of Law and Order, a government threatens - backed by the power of the State - to criminalize all who are guilty of nothing more than being bystanders when some protesters became unruly or violent, it has a truly chilling effect on our constitutionally guaranteed right to assemble peacefully in protest. Indeed, that's the not-so-hidden motivation behind a proposed new law here in Florida.

Our nation was formed by protest. And it has only been through protest that government leaders' feet have been held to the fire sufficiently to bring about transformations toward a better and more just society. Those transformations, though greatly valued, are far from complete. Yet further progress is now being seriously threatened.

Although protests throughout our nation's history have generally been peaceful, we recognize that at times some people - usually a small percentage - have not remained peaceful. But when protesters engage in vandalism or violence, there are already existing laws to address such behaviors. What is currently being proposed raises a whole new specter of intimidation and retaliation.

The Florida Poor Peoples Campaign is asking faith leaders and leaders from all organizations that prize and promote justice and equality for everyone to sign the following declaration to say emphatically and unequivocally to Florida Governor Ron DeSantis that our respective value systems force us to stand up against the proposed “Combating Violence, Disorder and Looting and Law Enforcement Protection Act.” The Act reads as follows:

New Criminal Offenses to Combat Rioting, Looting and Violence

1. Prohibition on Violent or Disorderly Assemblies: 3rd degree felony when 7 or more persons are involved in an assembly and cause damage to property or injury to other persons.
2. Prohibition on Obstructing Roadways: 3rd degree felony to obstruct traffic during an unpermitted protest, demonstration or violent or disorderly assembly; driver is NOT liable for injury or death caused if fleeing for safety from a mob.
3. Prohibition on Destroying or Toppling Monuments: 2nd degree felony to destroy public property during a violent or disorderly assembly.
4. Prohibition on Harassment in Public Accommodations: 1st degree misdemeanor for a participant in a violent or disorderly assembly to harass or intimidate a person at a public accommodation, such as a restaurant.
5. RICO Liability: RICO liability attaches to anyone who organizes or funds a violent or disorderly assembly.

Increased Penalties

1. Mandatory Minimum Jail Sentence: Striking a law enforcement officer (including with a projectile) during a violent or disorderly assembly = 6 months mandatory minimum jail sentence.
2. Offense Enhancements: Offense and/or sentence enhancements for: (1) throwing an object during a violent or disorderly assembly that strikes a civilian or law enforcement officer; (2) assault/battery of a law enforcement officer during a violent or disorderly assembly; and (3) participation in a violent or disorderly assembly by an individual from another state.

Citizen and Taxpayer Protection Measures

1. No “Defund the Police” Permitted: Prohibits state grants or aid to any local government that slashes the budget for law enforcement services.
2. Victim Compensation: Waives sovereign immunity to allow a victim of a crime related to a violent or disorderly assembly to sue local government for damages where the local government is grossly negligent in protecting persons and property.

3. Government Employment/Benefits: Terminates state benefits and makes anyone ineligible for employment by state/local government if convicted of participating in a violent or disorderly assembly.
4. Bail: No bond or bail until first appearance in court if charged with a crime related to participating in a violent or disorderly assembly; rebuttable presumption against bond or bail after first appearance.

Clearly, the foregoing would greatly affect communities of color and other marginalized communities as they seek to make their voices heard concerning the injustices created or tolerated by a government that does not always work on behalf of its people.

If peacefully protesting brothers and sisters of color end up as felons just by virtue of their proximity to the random vandalism or violence of a few, If peaceful protesters from out of state are punished more severely simply because they are from elsewhere, and if funders for what was never intended to be anything but a peaceful protest are charged with racketeering just because a handful of participants go rogue at some point in the event, the level of government intimidation will effectively eviscerate one of our crucial First Amendment rights.

As faith leaders and as leaders of an array of other organizations that stand for justice, equality and the freedoms promised in our Bill of Rights, we feel compelled to be moral voices speaking on behalf of the least of these.”

Please stand with The Florida Poor Peoples Campaign by signing this declaration, which seeks to ensure that our civil liberties, given under the Constitution of the United States of America, will remain inviolate so we the people will continue to have a voice. And so “government of the people, by the people, for the people shall not perish from the earth.”
